

Crane Meadow Book Club

The next meeting of the Crane Meadow Book Group is on Thursday April 10 at 7 p.m. We will discuss The Nine: Inside the Secret World of the Supreme Court by journalist Jeffrey Toobin. In The Nine, we see an inside view of the most important and secret legal body in our country, revealing the complex dynamics among the nine people who decide our laws. Now at a moment of transition, the Court stands at a crucial point, with major changes in store on such issues as civil rights and church-state relations. Based on exclusive interviews with the justices and with strong knowledge of the Court's history and future vision, Toobin's book is a riveting story of one of the most important forces in American life today.

All Crane Meadow residents are welcome to attend. Please respond by Sunday April 6 to Barbara Barry and Diane Stevens.
